Thornton, Colorado Police Department
9551 Civic Center Drive
Thornton, Colorado 80229

For officers of all ranks: Those who are involved in crime prevention or community liaison assignments, and those who are resources for their own places of worship.
For places of worship: Leaders, staff, security teams, greeters/ushers, volunteers and teachers.

This TWO DAY training event is packed with information on how to guide and support the development and implementation of Big Picture security and safety practices and plans for places of worship.

Whatever your role in law enforcement or in your place of worship, you'll gain a wide range of ideas you can implement right away!

There is much more to security and safety than responding to violent assailants..... this class will help you be a Big Picture resource!

Instructor: Tina Lewis Rowe had a thirty three year law enforcement career in Denver, Colorado. She has presented to thousands of audiences about police and private sector organizational topics, and security planning for courthouses, businesses and places of worship. Author of: Worship Without Worry and other material, requested by over 35,000 places of worship, world-wide.

To register: Just send names, contact information and organization or church name and location, to info@tinalewisrowe.com.

Payment can be made by PayPal invoice for credit cards, or with checks or cash prior to the training or at the door.

Law Enforcement Officers and Employees: $185 for two days.
Special Rate for Places of Worship: $95 for two days

"Wonderful and well-balanced training!" "Just what I needed." "Time flew by." "What a great class!"
